

HELPFUL LINKS FOR EDUCATORS USING MICROSOFT TEAMS

Quick-Start Guide: New to Microsoft Teams? Download this PDF guide to learn the basics.

Get started with Microsoft Teams for remote learning: This article offers many resources for educators, school leaders, and IT professionals to help get schools set up for remote learning, including links to downloadable guides, PowerPoint, and online tutorials. The article also explains user accounts and identity security and describes how to easily set up and start using Teams.

Host your virtual class with Microsoft Teams meetings integrated into your LMS: Microsoft has integrated Teams into several popular learning management systems so educators can connect with students using already-familiar online tools. This guide explains how to enable Microsoft Teams within the following systems:

- Canvas
- Blackboard
- Schoology
- Brightspace
- itsLearning

Creating, attending, and running meetings while using Teams for distance learning: This article includes guidelines and information for running meetings with Microsoft Teams for educators, students, and administrators.

Keeping students safe while using meetings in Teams for distance learning: This article offers tips for control settings before, during, and after meetings to increase your students' online safety.

Best practices for school leaders creating teams and channels in Microsoft Teams for Education: This article provides guidance for school leaders and IT administrators setting up teams and channels for streamlined communication and time-saving organization.

Security and compliance in Microsoft Teams: This article is useful for IT district staff, with detailed further information about Teams-specific security and compliance.