

MCL RESOURCE FOR COACHING REMOTELY: SAMPLE BEGINNING OF THE YEAR GOAL-SETTING CHECK-IN FORM

This screenshot shows the Google form created by Chicago MCL Keisha Wheat to prepare for initial goal-setting conversations with her team teachers while everyone was teaching from home. For more, see the webinar recording and other resources: Coaching Teachers Remotely During Covid—Keys to Providing Great Teacher Support Amid Crises.

BOY Coaching Check-In

I know we are typically together, however I still wanted to make sure we start the year with goal setting. I will schedule a one on one meeting with you to discuss our work together this year.

* Required

Email address *

Your email

What do you consider your area of strength?

Your answer

What is an area of growth for you?

Your answer

What are your instructional goals for the school year? Please do not just think about this question in regards to remote learning. We can work together to help you achieve your goals virtually?

Your answer

How can I best support you this year? This can be answered considering both remote learning as well as in-person instruction.

Your answer

Please provide me with any additional feedback you have for me as an instructional coach. Include things I do well as well as areas of improvement.

Your answer

Send me a copy of my responses.

Submit